

Lead Me On

Heather Jerrie

$\text{♩} = 120$

1. Oh, life's a jour - ney of joy and pain some-times it's
2. When the storms are ra - ging, and I'm far from shore, and the winds are
3. When the Dark One holds me in his e - vil gaze, and my eyes are
4. When Death's cold hands steal the ones I love, and my heart is 5. Be - fore I was born, Lord, you knew my name, in my moth-er's hard to find our way but when we're in trou - ble blowing, and I've lost my course, Oh, send me a light, then, blinded and I've lost my way, Oh, send me a Guide, then, aching, and the road is rough, Oh, send me a light, then, womb you knit my frame, So at my last sun - set, and we can't go on if we ask, the Spir-it comes to lead us on.

and help me go on, Spir-it come, take my hand and lead me on.
and help me go on, Spir-it come, take my hand and lead me on.
and help me go on, Spir-it come, take my hand and lead me on.
when my time is done, Spir-it come, take my hand and lead me on!

(Chorus) Lead me on, lead me on through the night to a new and joy - ous dawn; when I'm lost in the dark-ness and my
